

The Fordyce-Osborne Co. Youngstown, O.

A Tailored Suit Surprise Sale---Cut Prices At Maker's Expense For Advertising Purposes.

Remarkable
Offering.

BEGINS
SATURDAY
MAY 1st.

Do Not Miss
The Opportunity.

To more thoroughly advertise the merits of the popular Printzess Tailored suits, the sale of which we control in Youngstown, the makers have made a remarkable offer to us just at this height of the season. They have taken the balance of their cloths, which are nearly all sold out and made into suits to our order, especially for us, at a price concession which we consider the greatest advertising deal yet offered to the public, especially just now when most every woman is looking for the new tailored suits. Although the quantity is large, yet at the prices we think a few days will sell every one of them. Many choice numbers consist of only three or four suits of a cloth. In connection with this event, we have taken over 100 tailored suits from our regular stock, these being the same styles as the new arrivals, and as we cannot sell two suits of the same quality and style at two different prices, we are necessarily compelled to put our regular stock in with this cut price offer. There are hundreds of people who wait each season for the first great cut price tailored suit sale, which does not occur until much later, and as our out-of-town patrons do not know of these sales until too late to secure a choice, we have decided to give this sale widest publicity in all out of town papers, far enough in advance that the women folks can make preparations to be here on the day of sale, and in that way every person will have an equal opportunity.

The makers of the Printzess suits are extensive advertisers, and this special cut price sale is for giving their Printzess garments greater publicity. The colors are:—
Plain Cream White, White, with hair-line stripe, Tan, Castor, Brown, Steel and Stone Gray, Taupe, Wistaria, Copenhagen, Electric, and Navy Blue, Myrtle and Stone Green Garnet and Blacks. A Special Number in Blacks. Size 16 years to 44 Bust.

The styles are all the prevailing spring effects, as well as models especially desirable for fall.

THE CLOTHS.

Almost a full assortment of the most fashionable spring cloths in this showing, including serges, prunellas, panamas and panajah. Over 200 suits will be offered at this sale. Not one suit in the lot that is selling today for less than $25.00, a few at $27.50, and more than one-half of them are worth $30.00, with a good assortment of $35.00 Suits.

Now, for the greatest Cut Price Tailored Suit Sale of the Season.

Take your choice of these Tailored Suits, for.....

$18.50

SPECIAL FREE COUPON.

(The Canfield Dispatch.)
Bring this Coupon with you to our store on day of sale, when car fare for round trip will be refunded to all patrons within 40 miles, who purchased one of these suits. To secure car fare, Coupon must be returned.
THE FORDYCE-OSBORNE CO.

Special For One Day, $5.00 Dress Skirt Sale.

Owing to the fact that so many suburban customers cannot attend our mid-week $5.00 dress skirt sale, we will hold a special event of this kind on Saturday, May 1st, the day of the great tailored suit sale. The special lot will consist of wool voiles, wool cream white serges, panamas and mixtures. All desirable colors and sizes, made in the latest Spring models. Values up to $9.00.
Special price..... $5.00

Greater Exclusive
Dry Goods House

The Fordyce-Osborne Co.,

YOUNGSTOWN,
OHIO.

NEWS OF A WEEK IN CONDENSED FORM

RECORD OF MOST IMPORTANT
EVENTS TOLD IN BRIEFEST
MANNER POSSIBLE.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

Senator Bailey of Texas denounced the principle of protective tariff as unfair in a two-day speech in the senate.

Senator Smith of Michigan, incognito, successfully defended a Detroit negro in the police court in Washington.

A resolution introduced in the senate by Senator La Follette calls for data on duties imposed by the United States, Germany and France on several commodities.

Senator Doolittle of Iowa and Senator Nelson of Minnesota attacked the tariff bill on the ground that its duties are too high.

The three members of the Liberian commission, who are to sail from New York for Africa on Saturday next to study conditions in the negro republic, had a final conference with President Taft.

Senator Cummins of Iowa introduced an amendment to the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill providing for an income tax, which, he said, would produce $40,000,000 in revenue.

President Taft ordered Attorney General Wickersham to investigate charges made against the Harriman railroads by the senators and one representative of Utah.

PERSONAL.

Raymond L. May, a railroad fireman of Evansville, Ind., was given a Carnegie medal for saving the life of a negro boy.

Miss Olive Fremstad, the opera star, was among 200 guests who fled in scant attire from the Battery Park hotel at Asheville, N. C., when it caught fire.

Harvey W. Scott of Portland, Ore., who was tendered the ambassadorship to Mexico, declined the office in a letter received by President Taft.

Robert Watchorn, commissioner of immigration at New York, tendered his resignation to take effect immediately, and it was accepted. Joseph Murray is acting commissioner.

Mrs. Matthew T. Scott of Bloomington, Ill., was elected president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Yung Kwai, one of China's special envoys to the United States, predicted his country will have self rule in the next ten years.

Roland P. Falkner has accepted the president's tender of membership on the Liberian commission. He will be chairman of that commission.

GENERAL NEWS.

Thomas C. Dawson, American minister to the United States of Colombia, who has been transferred to Chile, has left Bogota for Washington for a conference before going to Santiago.

Capt. W. C. Cowles has been transferred from command of the battleship Kanawha to the battleship Kansas.

The first official appearance of Mrs. Matthew Scott as president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution occurred when she presided over the deliberations of the national board of the management of the D. A. R.

Dudley F. Loomis of Tiffin, O., landed at Southampton from Rio Janeiro March 13, since when he has not been seen. His disappearance has created some alarm, and the American consuls in England are searching for the missing man.

Lieut. Calvin P. Titus of the Fourteenth Infantry, who was the first man to scale the walls of the Chinese city at the battle of Peking on August 14, 1900, has reconsidered his intention to leave the army.

A large Bible, dedicated in the German emperor's own handwriting and ornamented with silver, has been sent to St. Louis as the imperial gift to the Holy Ghost German Evangelical church which is to celebrate its seventy-fifth anniversary May 2.

Maj. Gen. William P. Duval arrived at Manila on the transport Kilpatrick and formally assumed command of the military forces in the Philippines. He relieved Gen. W. H. Carter.

The nomination of Elliott Northcott of West Virginia to be minister to Colombia was confirmed by the senate.

The resignation of George Lincoln Goodale, professor of natural history at Harvard university and director of the botanical garden, was announced.

Former President Roosevelt left Mombasa for the African jungles to begin his big game hunt.

Former Judge M. J. Gordon, who was counsel for the Great Northern Railroad Company was arrested in Spokane, Wash., on a charge of embezzling the railway's funds.

A conference for the betterment of trade with Canada was held by business men from many states at Detroit.

Miss Rose Lambert of Elkhart, Ind., one of the five American missionaries at Hadjin, Asiatic Turkey, sent a message asking for help and expressing fear that they would be killed.

Two tons of dynamite were used in a single blast to dislodge the ice jam in the lower Niagara river.

Jack Johnson, champion of the world, and Jack O'Brien of Philadelphia, signed articles of agreement to fight six rounds in Philadelphia May 18.

The reciprocity conference called to plan improvement of trade conditions with Canada adjourned at Detroit following adoption of resolutions demanding tariff changes.

After September 1 next kidnapping in New York will be punishable by imprisonment for not less than five years nor more than 25 years, instead of not more than 25 years, as provided in the present statute.

The sultan of Turkey appeared in the streets of Constantinople for the first time since the revolt has been threatening his detronement.

Indictments were returned at Mercer, Pa., against James Boyle and his wife charging them with kidnapping William White.

James W. Van Cleave of St. Louis, president of the Citizens' Industrial alliance, has resigned because of antagonism shown to him by manufacturers after his fight, as president of the Bucks Store & Range Company, against Samuel Compers, John Mitchell and other labor leaders.

Mrs. Jessie Osborne, a bride of ten days, committed suicide at Peru, Ind. President Taft probably will not attend the meeting of the Yale corporation on May 17, but he hopes to attend the commencement exercises in June.

Henry L. Wilson, the American minister to Belgium, has notified the state department that the Belgian government is about to issue a decree removing restrictions against the importation of cattle from all sections of the United States.

Following two days of fighting in the streets of Constantinople, in which 700 are reported to have been killed, the sultan's troops surrendered and he was taken prisoner.

Hon. Ronald Ramsay, brother of Earl Donhouse of England, committed suicide by jumping into the sea from the liner Cleveland.

Former President Roosevelt, was threatened with smallpox when two of his many porters were taken ill with the disease.

J. C. Maybray, a prisoner at Des Moines, who was identified by a woman as J. J. McCann, for whose murder "Lord" Barrington was convicted, denied that he is the man.

An attempt was made to destroy the famous St. Louis cathedral in New Orleans with a bomb.

Many American women attended the international conference of suffragists in London.

The huge icebergs which have gorged the lower Niagara river have broken and the danger is over.

The Japanese cruisers Soya and Aso arrived at San Pedro, Cal., being the first of the Mikado's ships to anchor in a Pacific port in ten years.

Eight persons lost their lives when the towboat Eagle sank in the Mississippi river 40 miles above New Orleans.

S. N. D. North, director of the census, who has had trouble with Secretary Nagle, denied that he will resign, but it is said he will be ousted by the president, who intends to give the place to E. Dana Durand.

Appeals for aid were sent by missionaries including several Americans, in the district of Asiatic Turkey, where more than 25,000 are reported to have been massacred.

Hal Chase, first baseman of the New York American league team, was discharged from the smallpox hospital at August 10.

A. B. Kenzie, a merchant of Pontiac, Ill., was killed and four companions hurt when a train struck their automobile at Elmhurst, Ill.

A report from Beirut said Moslems renewed their massacre of Christians at Adana, Asiatic Turkey.

Adele Ross, daughter of a New York millionaire, who was believed to have been kidnapped, returned to her home after working in a Boston restaurant.

The International Kindergarten union began its sixteenth annual convention in Buffalo.

Admiral Iijichi, commander of the Japanese navy, now at San Pedro, Cal., told Admiral Evans war with the United States is impossible.

Jackson and White counties in Indiana at option elections voted "dry" and put 27 saloons out of business.

Centrahoma, Okla., was swept by a cyclone and not a building in the town was left undamaged, but no person was killed.

Masons from all over Missouri attended the grand lodge meeting in Joliet.

The Hungarian cabinet has resigned and the emperor-king, Francis Joseph, has asked Count Andrássy to form a new ministry.

Surgeons at the Flower hospital in New York have effected a remarkable cure of a patient suffering from a malignant tumor by the injection of gelatin impregnated with radium.

Fifteen thousand cripples, widows and orphans of New York, who hold judgments aggregating $2,000,000 against the bankrupt New York City Railway Company, plan to hold a mass meeting in Cooper Union in an effort to collect their claims.

Gov. Willson of Kentucky granted pardons to former Gov. Taylor, former Secretary of State Finley, John Powers, Holland Whittaker, John Davis and Zach. Steele, alleged conspirators in the assassination of Gov. Goebel in January, 1900.

With lions prowling around his tent Theodore Roosevelt slept peacefully on his first night under canvas in Africa.

The commission, which is to study conditions in Liberia, sailed from New York.

GREAT VOLCANO IN SAMOA.

In Eruption Nearly Four Years and Has Emitted Enormous Mass of Molten Lava.

Letters recently received in this city from people who, journeying across the Pacific, made a stop at Samoa, give some idea of the stupendous volcanic outbreak that is going on in the island of Savai, German Samoa. This volcano broke out three and a half years ago, but it is so far away from the usual lines of travel across the Pacific that but little has been learned of its activity.

It has been in constant eruption the whole of that time and must have thrown out a far more enormous mass of molten matter than has any other volcano within historic times.

The fiery river that flows from a great rent in the side of the mountain is eight miles wide and has buried under its lava about sixty square miles of country. The activity of the volcano and the amount of the flow are increasing.

Hills 600 feet high have been submerged and valleys as deep have been filled to their rims with the molten rock. The outflow of the volcano has been estimated to be at least 500,000 tons a minute. By the side of such a mass as that, kept up steadily for more than three years, the disgorgings of Vesuvius would be no more than a spoonful.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

As the island of Savai is very sparsely inhabited, even by the natives, while its white population consists of a few missionaries and traders, there has been but little damage to life or property in the neighborhood of the volcano. To the seismologist, however, this island offers a fruitful subject for study, although its remote situation has as yet kept it out of the reach of science.

JURY IS NOW COMPLETE

TRIAL OF CAPT. PETER C. HAINS
BEGUN AT FLUSHING.

The State Presents its Case—Several Army Officers Will Testify for the Defense.

Flushing, N. Y., Apr. 28.—The jury that is to try Capt. Peter C. Hains for the murder of William E. Annis, his one-time friend, was finally completed yesterday. It took just seven days to select the 12 men and in that time 450 takersmen were called and examined. The state will present its case, beginning to-day, and from that time on the case will move expeditiously.

The idea that a lunacy commission will be appointed to pass upon the captain's present mental condition is dominant in the minds of those who have followed the case. If this be done, it will come as soon as the first evidence of insanity is presented by the defense. Otherwise the trial is likely to last four or five weeks, and 30 or 40 witnesses, including the insanity experts, will be called by both sides.

There will be a tinge of military color at the trial in the presence of several army officers, witnesses for the defense, who were attached to the posts where Capt. Hains was stationed during his army career. They will testify as to irrational acts of the defendant.

According to John F. McIntyre, chief counsel for the defense, witnesses will be called to show a hereditary taint of insanity in the defendant's family.

MURIEL WHITE IS WEDDED

Civil Marriage of Ambassador's Daughter to Be Followed To-morrow by Religious Ceremony.

Paris, Apr. 28.—Miss Muriel White, daughter of the American ambassador to France, to-day became a Prussian countess when she was united in marriage to Count Hermann Scherr-Thors, officer in the Royal Prussian Cavalry. The ceremony of to-day was the civil one, which alone constitutes a legal marriage in France, and was performed by the mayor of the Eighth Arrondissement, in which the ambassador resides. The marriage contract contained no dowry provision, and stipulated that the couple shall live under what is known in Europe as a "regime of separation of property."

To-morrow the religious ceremony will be celebrated in St. Joseph's church, one of the most exclusive Catholic churches in Paris. The service will be simple and only close relatives will be present. The bridesmaids are to be Miss Margaret Rutherford, niece of Miss White, and Miss Lucy Buckler, daughter of Mr. White's stepbrother. If the ambassador keeps his word he will not attend the wedding in the church. As his daughter retains her Protestant faith, he desires that there should be a Protestant as well as a Catholic ceremony, but to this Cardinal Kopp would not consent.

JAPANESE ARE ENTERTAINED

An Elaborate Banquet Given to the Officers and Men of Admiral Iijichi's Squadron.

Los Angeles, Apr. 28.—As a crown to the entertainment extended officers and men of Admiral Iijichi's training squadron, now at San Pedro, a banquet was given last night by the chamber of commerce at the Jonathan club, where 40 officers and 90 prominent citizens gathered. Admiral Iijichi and Commander Sato and Ishii sat at the speakers' table.

The table, which was arranged in the shape of the letter E, was covered by an immense quantity of pale blue Japanese iris. In the center, banked with flowers, was an electric fountain six feet in height, throwing half a dozen streams of water, varicolored by electric lights, all centering in a huge shell supported by mermaids.

Admiral Iijichi proposed a toast to the president of the United States. Toasts were drunk to both the emperor of Japan and the president.

CUSTOMS RECEIPTS INCREASE

Report by the Collector of Port of New York Shows a Revival in the Import Trade.

New York, Apr. 28.—The customs receipts at this port for the expired portion of the fiscal year of 1908-09, according to figures made public yesterday by the collector, show a marked increase over the duties collected during the corresponding period of the fiscal year of 1907-08.

During the 249 working days elapsed so far, the duties collected aggregated $161,187,532, as against $161,647,385 collected during the same 249 days of 1907-08. During the same period of 1906-07 the receipts were $185,528,296. The revival in the import trade, the customs officers declare, began immediately after the national election.

Coopers Denied New Trial.

Nashville, Tenn., Apr. 28.—Judge William H. Hart yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of Col. Duncan B. Coopers and Robin J. Cooper, his son, both convicted of the murder of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack. The court's opinion was that there was no ground for setting aside the verdict of the trial jury. The defense at once gave notice of an appeal to the Tennessee supreme court. The appeal was granted.

"You must learn to trust your fellow-men," said the professional optimist. "There's no use in talking that way to me," answered the worried-looking citizen. "I'm in the grocery business."

An Impractical Suggestion.

"You must learn to trust your fellow-men," said the professional optimist. "There's no use in talking that way to me," answered the worried-looking citizen. "I'm in the grocery business."

For a slight cut there is nothing better to control the hemorrhage than common unglazed paper, such as is found by grocers and market men. Bind a piece on the cut.

Don't Cross the Line. Women have need to learn the great lesson that there is a line between essentials which, overstepped, leads to mental and physical shipwreck.

Never Be Afraid to Doubt. Never be afraid to doubt, if only you have the disposition to believe; and doubt in order that you may end in believing the truth.—Leighton.

The Funny Things We Hear. "What time is it?" "Just struck 12." "Oh, it must be later than that. You couldn't have counted right."—Boston Transcript.

Progress in Argentina. The main factor in Argentina's progress during recent years has been its constant railroad extension.

One's Own Judgment Biased. Our opinion of ourselves, like